

Seeing the Divine in All Awakens the Divine in You

The transformation of human consciousness is progressing in earnest. Higher Energies are intensifying, quickening and are now more penetrating than ever. This high vibrational Power is loosening the solidity of the old self, opening the way for a merger with a Universal Love, Consciousness and Energy. This Union in Love is the ultimate gift. It is everything we have ever wanted and the purpose of every incarnation we have ever had. All that is required is to let go of resistance; to agree to go along with this Divine evolutionary call. However, because we have identified with the separate self for so long and with such fervor, this impulse towards Union can be quite daunting.

Since the small self is the only thing in the way of merging with a Universal Love, all that is required for this Union to occur is surrendering the small self to that Higher Loving Power. But this kind of surrender is foreign to the small self which defines its very existence in terms of control and separateness. This separation is perpetuated and reinforced by judging others, self and the world. The need to feel right and superior are the chains that bind you to the self rooted in fear and lack.

Simply seeing the Truth that ALL is Divine will directly align you with a Universal Love, which will automatically end the compulsion to judge. This alignment with Truth will also allow the Awakening of the Divine in You!

The seed must break open, ending its former life in darkness, in order for the Tree to be birthed forth into its New Life in the Light

What You See In Others

Are you angered or threatened by those who hold opposing views? Do you believe that certain people are less deserving to exist? Do you regard those who share your world view as more worthy? Is assessing who is spiritual and who is unspiritual something that you find yourself doing often? Are you confident in your ability to discern good and bad – people, organizations, countries, events, etc.? Although these ways of viewing the world and others is considered normal, they actually prevent you from experiencing your own Divinity and Freedom.

Any thinking and feeling that makes you feel superior to others feeds your spiritual ego. And a spiritual ego blocks the Light of God just as much as any other ego.

Do you see and feel the Divine Essence of even those who diametrically oppose your most cherished values? Do you completely allow the right of each and every one to exist? Are you able to See that the one who irritates you or even the one who has harmed you has the same God-essence as you? That places you at the threshold of Liberation.

If You Are Not Seeing the Divine In All, You are Not Seeing the Divine At All

All Waves Ocean

The wave gladly merges with the Ocean because it does not view other waves as non-Ocean. In Union, a wave KNOWS that it IS and has always been Ocean. This truth is obscured by the conviction that certain waves do not have Ocean essence, or that some waves are lacking in that Essence.

Seeing other waves as non-Ocean will forever and unequivocally make that wave feel separate from the Ocean. Fear and lack will then be the predominant and INHERENT aspect of its pseudo-life. Ironically, seeing other waves as non-Ocean is a projection of one's own experience of being non-Ocean . . . which was created by seeing others as non-Ocean. It is a self-reinforcing loop.

The only way for the wave to complete its journey Home is to surrender its need to assert that there are ANY waves that are non-Ocean.

The Tree of Life In Every Leaf

A leaf's survival and beauty is contingent upon the survival of every other leaf. A tree cannot survive with only one leaf. What if leaves could judge like humans do? What if only leaves that met the conditions of other leaves were allowed to exist? There would not be any leaves left on the tree. There would be no tree.

Without a tree, every leaf dies. Without leaves, a tree does not exist

A leaf cannot know its Oneness with the Tree unless it allows the existence of every other leaf. In that Oneness, a leaf joyfully Loves every other leaf. The tree exists only as its totality. Once a leaf lets go of its insistence that it is separate, the threat of other leaves instantly vanishes, and ALL leaves are transmuted into the Divine Radiance of God. There is no real Life, Beauty and Truth in separation. The leaf realizes it IS the tree through surrendering separation.

That is the dawning of a New Life. The veil is lifted and the Realization of Self extends not only beyond the leaf, but beyond the tree to the forest, soil, rain, mountain, all creatures, the Earth and Sky. And once one experiences the Real Life of Divine Energy, it is seen that not even the Sky is the limit. For when one lives in, and AS, Pure Life Energy, other dimensions of Life begin to reveal themselves.

Such is the deadening and distorting effect of identifying as a separate self, and such is the Liberating and Enlivening Power of letting it go!

Give yourself the gift of having no enemies. The world and other people cannot do that for you. You get to decide. It is only then that you can be a gift unto the world. The flow of Divine Radiance Awakens when the separate self has been surrendered.

The greatest Self Blessing is Seeing the Blessing in All

The Divine in You, Awakens the Divine in All

Since the ego exists as the denial of the Divine, an ego can never awaken the Divine in another, no matter how well intentioned, moral or “spiritual” it may be.

The ONLY Power that can revive and reawaken the Divine in another is the Divine.

When the Divine in You Sees the Divine in another, this reclaims the Truth that All is Divine, which Awakens the Divine in that individual, no matter how long it has lain dormant, forgotten or disowned. This is the greatest Love of all.
