

Thank You For Opening to a Higher Love

With heart-felt awe and gratitude, I thank each and every one of you for opening to the Energies of a Higher Love and Power. In the coming days and years, you will see with increasing clarity and gratitude that this decision to align with, rather than resist, these Divine Energies is the most significant choice you could ever make. You will come to realize that the greatest Gift of Abundance that you could ever receive, and the most valuable blessing that you could bestow upon your fellow human beings and the world, is your agreement to merge with this Universal Love.

But that doesn't mean that it isn't challenging!

UNIVERSE: I have a plan
for your life

There really is a Higher Love and Power that is bringing each of us as individuals, and all of us as collective humanity, to a Life free of fear and separation that is the true benediction and consecration, beyond all religions, countries and outmoded identifications. Here are three versions of the same song (the first is the original) that may remind us of this truth:
